

Equal Rights Presentations For Job Order Staff

What is Wisline? Wisline brings together staff from around the state to meet or hear a presentation simultaneously, without wasting time and money for travel.

Wisline is a service of the University of Wisconsin-Extension, Instructional Communications System.

When are the Presentations?

Monday - May 2, 2005
1:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Tuesday - May 3, 2005
1:00 - 3:00 p.m.

A few of the topics to be covered include:

- Arrest/Conviction Records
- Physical Requirements - Disability (ADA & WFEA), race, national origin, gender
- Language Ability - National Origin/Ancestry/Ethnicity Discrimination
- EEO Statements

A few of the topics to be covered include:

- Educational Requirements (sex, age, disability, national origin, race, etc.)
- Driver's License and vehicle requirements - Disability issues
- Age Requirements
- Gender Requirements

Who are the Presenters?

Our presenters on both days will be Bob Anderson, Director of the Labor Standards Bureau, and Georgina Taylor, Agency Liaison in the Civil Rights Bureau, both in the Equal Rights Division of the Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development.

How do I Participate?

A telephone with conference call capabilities is required. To minimize costs (we are charged for each line calling in to participate), all participants at a location (i.e., Job Center) should be in the same room.

Registration

There is no registration fee or cost to you to participate in these sessions.

Participants must register on DWD Campus for each session. The deadline for registering is Friday, April 22. Search the Course Catalog for "equal rights".

A few days before the session you will receive an email confirmation with a Passcode that you will need to join the Wisline audioconference. Details will be included in the email confirmation notice.

Questions

If you have questions about the sessions or how to participate, please contact Linda Williamson via email at Linda.Williamson@dwd.state.wi.us or by telephone at 608-264-8167.