Full Day Seminar - Job Development for Offenders – Tuesday, August 14, 2007 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM

Many employers are reluctant to hire ex-offenders, so ex-offenders often struggle to contribute to society; even with the assistance of a job developer. The ability to successfully place ex-offenders into the workforce requires unique placement techniques, and a well-laid plan. This seminar will provide you with: an overview of current correctional trends; insight into criminal thinking and cognitive intervention; the tools to prevent yourself from getting conned. You will learn about legislation applicable to placing ex-offenders, and, how to develop an effective action plan.
