CareerBuilder.com Blocked in Wisconsin Job Centers Due to Virus

Emergency measures were taken a few minutes ago to block CareerBuilder.com. CareerBuilder.com has a virus, which has infected several JobNet machines today. The site has been blocked by DWD.

All Job Center staff should be notified of this problem immediately, and should not access the website from any computer. Do not allow customers to access CareerBuilder.com.

The Department of Administration is tracking this problem, and will notify DWD when CareerBuilder.com has resolved the problem. We will notify you when that happens.
